A WEDDING EXTRAORDINARY.

A Glassblower Marries the Dime Museum's Female Head—Singular Freak.
Two of the leading lights in the curiosity department of the Dime museum were missing from their places last Monday. The parties referred to are the Bohemian glassblower and the female head, which is served up at short intervals to the curious crowds on a plate. The name of the glassblower is Thomas J. Jordan, while the head bears the name of Miss Susie Lawrence. The blower spends his hours making all kinds of fancy glass work, including china infants confined in bottles of colored fluid. The lady is considered a curiosity because she is regarded by most persons as a beautiful female head without a body. This is not so, for Miss Susie is a pretty girl, in figure and in face. The act she performs so gracefully is simply an optical delusion. The mystery of their absence on Monday is easily explained. The glassblower had formed a strong attachment for the pretty face which watched him every day from its mysterious plate, and the head had reciprocated in an unmistakable manner. Filtrations were carried on "between the acts," and they culminated Saturday night in a marriage engagement. On the following day, Sunday, the "head" and the "blower" eloped. They went to Baltimore, got a license, and were married in due form by a well known Methodist parson of that city. They are now man and wife, and the court record in Baltimore shows a marriage permit issued to "Thomas J. Jordan and Susie Lawrence."

We Claim for Our Clothing the proper make, the correct style, elegant in name and perfect in fit. Elements of the most popular clothing and tailors, corner 7th and E streets.

Not Much Going On. A colored girl about 16 years of age hastily left the Emergency hospital yesterday afternoon and went down Tenth street crying and wringing her hands. A bloody bandage was tied about her neck, and a stout colored woman supported her staggering form. A REPUBLICAN reporter entered the hospital and asked Dr. Markriter about the mysterious occurrence. "This is operation day," he replied. "We just cut a half pound keloid tumor from that girl's neck. Of course she was under the influence of gas during the operation, but when she awoke and found her neck half a pound lighter than it was before she came to see us, and her dress covered with blood, she naturally became frightened."

"Any other operations to-day," asked the reporter. "Yes. We cut the tendons of a colored child's ankle to relieve club-foot, and put a white man in a plaster jacket for spine disease. The operations were performed by Drs. Magruder and Kleinschmidt."

Athletic Park, Washingtons vs. Athletics to-day.

Suit for Damages. William L. Woods yesterday entered a second suit at law against the vestry of Trinity parish for injuries received by his daughter, Harriet J. Woods in May 29, 1883, by a saah from one of the towers of the church falling upon her, and in this action claims $30,000 damages. In the first suit $50,000 was claimed.

BEACH HAVEN, New Jersey, although for some years past very popular with Philadelphians, has not received the recognition from other sections of the country which its many attractions warrant. The accommodations for visitors this season will be greatly improved by the addition of a new and handsome hotel, the Baldwin, which in all its appointments will be first class. That its management will be efficient and popular goes without saying, when it is understood that Mr. George W. Kittelle is the proprietor and manager. The successful career of this gentleman at the Maplewood hall, Pittsfield, Mass., and the Egmont Hotel, Fernandina, Fla., are well known and will go far to secure for the Baldwin a successful season. Beach Haven is accessible from New York and Philadelphia by the Pennsylvania railroad.

Sixth Week!

—OF OUR—

SPECIAL BARGAINS!

COMMENCING

MONDAY, MAY 19,

And Continue the Balance of the Week.

Our customers all smile, and the reason they do so is because they know what is in store for them. We do not worry the many readers of our advertisement with stale, high priced goods, and leave the same before their eyes until it seems to them an old landmark, but make it a special part of our business to procure a different line of Novelty in place before the public in order to make good our name for low prices and good selections.

Read now what you can buy at of next week:
54 White Honey Comb Spreads, 49c. These are all we positively could get to offer for this money, and the first advertised this season. Only one to each buyer.
48 extra heavy White Spreads, full size, 60c.
10,000 yards of Short End, yard wide, French Boucards, 7c. Same cut from piece worth 27c a yard. Put up same as all our Short Ends. We are sure these will sell as fast as can be shown.
1 case of Short End Amoskeag Apron Gingham, all in 2-yard pieces, regular 10c goods. We shall sell this at 12c.
1,000 yards Plain Nan's Velling, in Cream and Light Blue, 12c. All these who could not be supplied with these colors called now.

WHITE GOODS!

LEADERS!

The Palais Royal gives away one of the "secrets of the trade" when it states that "leaders" mean those specialties which every store makes in each department (by selling a certain article at very low price) in order to attract custom.

THE PALAIS ROYAL "LEADERS"

Gloves.

The "leaders" in above department are our 65c Silk Mousquetaire Gloves, also 65c Silk Mitts, both of which come in twenty-two different colors, and are sold elsewhere at 95c. Our 25c Mousquetaire Lisle Gloves are usually retailed at 39c.

Parasols.

The "leaders" are Satin Coaching Parasols, in every new color, improved shape, paragon frames, and imported sticks. The price, $1.50, is just 10c cheaper than the cheapest of other stores, and the quality is considerably better. The new shaded Silk Parasols at $2.55, sold by most stores at $4.25.
The "leader" in Umbrellas is our Silk Sun Umbrella at $1.65, which is sold by the cheapest of our competitors for $1.75. Our 20-inch Silk Umbrella, with paragon frames, at $1.05 cannot be purchased elsewhere under $2.50.

Handkerchiefs.

Our "leaders" are our 25c Handkerchiefs. We show them in finest sheer linen, with colored hem-stitched borders; also in fine linen, with white hand embroidery, and for Gents we show them in plain white or fancy colored borders in the "Elephant" and other new styles. Above Handkerchiefs retail usually for 45c each.

Jerseys.

Our great "leader" is our $2.98 Jersey, which is tailor finished, and undoubtedly the finest fitting Jersey in the market. Anyway, we defy any of our competitors to offer such a Jersey under $4.25.

Corsets.

The "leader" is the well known "Bridal" Corsets, which retail all over the United States for $1. Our price is 60c.

Hosiery.

Our grand "leader" is our 40c Lisle Thread Hose. Other stores may sell 40c Lisle Hose, but the quality we offer cannot be seen elsewhere under 65c.

Gents' Goods.

Our "leaders" in this department are fully 25 per cent. under the cheapest of our competitors. Examine our 80c Dress Shirt.

Examine our 20c Silk Scarf.

Examine our 25c Gaze Underwear.

Examine our 25c Fancy Half Hose.

Examine our 37c "Guyot" Suspenders.

The Palais Royal!

1117-19 Pennsylvania Avenue.

The "leaders" mentioned in above advertisement are guaranteed below the usual retail prices. An examination will prove the correctness of such assertion.
